About Mittal

IN LOVING MEMORY OF SHRI RAJENDRA MITTAL JI

3th edition

"Long roads to walk, destinations yet so far....."

But when capability, conduct and competence form a beautiful blend, roads shorten and destinations become easier in themselves". This has been the history of our college since its inception in 1979.

The trustees of Marwari Vidyalaya, men of steel and vision took over in 1984 the formidable task of transforming an old college into a college to reckon with and renamed it as the Marwari Vidyalaya Sanchalit

'Smt. Kamaladevi Gauridutt Mittal College of Arts and Commerce' in 1992.

From the modest strength of 700 students, the college today has expanded to accommodate around 3,500 students attending the classes in two shifts for degree and Junior and has carved a niche for itself in the suburbs.

Over the years, the management's trust for quality and job oriented education has borne fruit.
