

Report of the workshop held on 12th July 2023 on 'Awareness about Women's and children's rights' jointly organized by Women Development cell and Library with SNEHA: a social organization working in Mumbai.

The workshop was held in the college auditorium between 11 am till 1.30 pm. The session speakers: Smt. Vrushali Dekhne and Smt. Vandana Singh from SNEHA were introduced by Smt. Pratiksha Phadnis and welcomed with books by Smt. Swati Phadke. The speakers interacted with students on issues related to women on domestic violence, hurdles in education and career, social problems etc. with the help of PowerPoint presentation and short YouTube videos. Students took part in the discussion and raised many queries related to the subject including marital disputes, separate quota for girl students. Thus the workshop successfully concluded by sensitizing the participant students on the theme. Total 126 students participated in this workshop.
