Report on a workshop focusing on "Women's Well Being".

Date: October 10th, 2018
Time: 11:00 AM
Venue: College Auditorium

Introduction:

On October 10th, 2018, our college organized a Workshop on Women's Well Being, with a focus on various aspects of women's health. The workshop aimed to educate and raise awareness among faculty and students regarding the importance of women's health and well-being. Dr. Vaijayanti Kamat, a renowned gynecologist, graciously consented to be the resource person for the event.

Attendance:

Number of Faculties: 9
Number of Students: 151

Workshop Details:

The workshop commenced at 11:00 AM in the college auditorium. Dr. Vaijayanti Kamat, with her expertise in the field of gynecology, delivered an enlightening session covering several crucial topics related to women's health. The workshop was interactive, allowing attendees to actively participate, ask questions, and share their concerns.

Key Topics Covered:

Reproductive Health: Dr. Kamat elaborated on various aspects of reproductive health, emphasizing the importance of regular check-ups and screenings.

Menstrual Hygiene: She discussed the significance of menstrual hygiene and debunked myths surrounding menstruation, promoting a healthy approach towards menstruation.

Family Planning: The workshop also addressed family planning methods, including contraception and the importance of informed decision-making regarding family planning.

Common Gynecological Issues: Dr. Kamat shed light on common gynecological issues faced by women, their symptoms, and the importance of early diagnosis and treatment.
