REPORT ON Pictionary GAME

Ismail Yusuf College of Arts, Science and Commerce's Self Finance (Commerce) Department organized a game activity 'PICTIONARY- THE GAME OF QUICK DRAW' on 12th October, 2018 from 09:00 AM to 10:00 AM for the students of BMS and BAF. The event was organized under the guidance of the Co-ordinators of BMS and BAF and by Prof. Lydia Kalgutkar.

The core of Pictionary is communication through drawing. Even participants who didn't engage in the game discussion felt compelled to guess what the drawer was portraying. Because they played Pictionary in teams, they learnt to communicate with others. The participants bounced ideas off each other when figuring out what picture the drawer is producing.

The act of drawing required players to use eye-hand coordination. The participants were getting the chalk to do what their eye was doing. While envisioning an idea or image in their mind, they were trying to recreate it. As the students guided movement of their hand with their eyes, they developed their eye-hand coordination.

Lastly, playing Pictionary provided the perfect opportunity for social interaction amongst people – helping to break the ice. It was great for team-building activities and lightening up the atmosphere.
