Report

On December 22, 2022, Department of Arabic, Persian & Islamic studies organised a series of soft skill competitions at Bhasha Bhavan. The events included a Poem Reading Competition, Qissa Goi, a Debate Competition, and an On-the-Spot Event, showcasing the talents and creativity of the participants.

The event began with the Poem Reading Competition, where participants presented their original poems and recited works from renowned poets. The audience was captivated by the emotion and creativity displayed by the readers, making it a vibrant start to the day.

Following the poem reading, the Qissa Goi session offered participants an opportunity to narrate stories from their cultural heritage.

The Debate Competition challenged participants on various contemporary issues. Teams presented well-researched arguments, demonstrating their critical thinking and public speaking skills. The lively discussions and rebuttals contributed to an intellectually stimulating atmosphere.

The final event of the day was the On-the-Spot competition, wherein participants were tasked with creating and saying about that topic which was given to participant.

The events were a resounding success, celebrating the richness of language, culture, and expression.

Participants, judges, and attendees alike enjoyed a day filled with creativity, intellect, and entertainment. Such events play a significant role in promoting cultural literacy and appreciation among the community. The organizers are commended for their efforts in bringing these competitions to life and fostering an environment for talent to flourish.
