Report on Seminar: ICA Edu skills association with a seminar on "Careers in Accounts, Finance & Taxation" for TYBCOM students

Ismail Yusuf's College of Arts, Science and Commerce's Department of Commerce organized a seminar on "Careers in Accounts, Finance & Taxation" for the students of TY B.Com on 13/02/2023 – Monday in College Auditorium.

The session started at 11:00 A.M. with an inaugural address by Prof. Dr. Arvind Luhar emphasizing the importance of strategic career planning and the multitude of opportunities available within the accounting, finance, and taxation sectors.

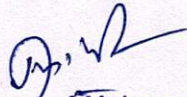

Attendance:

The seminar witnessed active participation from 120 TYB.Com students, eager to explore potential career paths and gain valuable insights from industry experts. Additionally, six faculty members were present to provide guidance and support throughout the session, ensuring a conducive learning environment.

Seminar Highlights:

The seminar commenced with an informative presentation by representatives from ICA Edu Skills, who provided an overview of the diverse career opportunities available in accounts, finance, and taxation. They discussed the requisite skills, qualifications, and certifications necessary for pursuing careers in these fields, offering valuable guidance to students.

Interactive sessions and panel discussions were conducted, allowing students to pose questions, share their experiences, and engage in meaningful dialogue with industry professionals. Expert speakers shared personal anecdotes, career insights, and practical advice to help students chart their career paths and make informed decisions about their future endeavors.

Key Takeaways:

Enhanced understanding of career prospects in accounts, finance, and taxation
Insight into the skills and qualifications required for success in the industry
Guidance on academic and professional pathways to pursue a career in these fields

The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks extended to the representatives from ICA Edu Skills for their valuable contributions and to all participants for their active engagement and participation.

Throughout the seminar, attendees participated in various sessions designed to cover different aspects of careers in Accounts, Finance, and Taxation. Interactive workshops and presentations facilitated the acquisition of practical knowledge and skills essential for success in these domains. Topics such as financial analysis techniques, tax planning strategies, and the utilization of accounting software were thoroughly explored.

Students found the seminar highly beneficial, citing its relevance, engaging content, and valuable networking opportunities. Feedback was overwhelmingly positive, with suggestions for minor improvements. Overall, the seminar successfully inspired and motivated attendees for their future careers.

Outcome:

Through expert presentations, interactive sessions, and panel discussions, students gained enhanced awareness of career opportunities in accounting, finance, and taxation. The seminar provided valuable career guidance, networking opportunities, and motivation for students to pursue their career goals with confidence. Overall, it was an informative and inspiring event that empowered students with the knowledge and insights needed to make informed career decisions in their respective fields.
