Report on Student Presentation: Financial Analysis of Multinational Corporations.

Date: 30th August 2022

Time: 11:00 am

Venue: Computer Lab

Summary:

On the 30th of August 2022, a student presentation on Financial Analysis of Multinational Corporations (MNCs) was held in the college's Computer Lab. The event was organized by the SYBMS (Finance) students. Participants: 35 Students, 4 Faculty Members

Purpose:

The primary objective of the presentation was to provide insights into the financial operations and performance of MNCs. It aimed to enhance the understanding of financial analysis techniques among students and faculty members.

Event Details:

The presentation commenced at 11:00 am and lasted for approximately one hour. The students utilized the resources available in the computer lab to showcase their findings and analysis. They presented various financial metrics, such as profitability ratios, liquidity ratios, and leverage ratios, to evaluate the financial health of MNCs.

Outcome:

The presentation provided valuable insights into the complex world of multinational corporation finance. Students gained practical knowledge in financial analysis techniques, which can be applied in their academic pursuits and future careers in finance.

Overall, the event served as a platform for collaborative learning and knowledge exchange among students and faculty members interested in finance. It highlighted the importance of understanding financial dynamics in the global business landscape.
