Report: Online Seminar on "Wetland Action for People and Nature"

The Department of Commerce, in collaboration with EnvironAct Consultancy, organized an online seminar on "Wetland Action for People and Nature" on 5th February 2022. The seminar aimed to raise awareness about the importance of wetlands and their conservation efforts, featuring guest speaker Dr. Sheetal Pachpande, Deputy Director of Research at the Mangrove Foundation.

Key Details:

- Number of Student Participants: 73
- Number of Faculty Participants: 5

Highlights:

- 1. Expert Insights: Dr. Sheetal Pachpande delivered a comprehensive presentation on the significance of wetlands for biodiversity conservation, climate change mitigation, and ecosystem services, drawing on her extensive research and experience in the field.
- 2. Interactive Session: The seminar included an interactive Q&A session, allowing participants to engage with Dr. Pachpande, ask questions, and discuss relevant topics related to wetland conservation.
- 3. Awareness Building: The seminar effectively raised awareness among participants about the importance of wetlands and the need for collective action to protect and restore these vital ecosystems.
- 4. Actionable Steps: Dr. Pachpande provided practical insights and actionable steps for participants to contribute to wetland conservation efforts in their communities and beyond, empowering them to make a positive impact.
- 5. Networking Opportunity: The seminar provided a platform for students and faculty members to connect, exchange ideas, and collaborate on future initiatives related to wetland conservation and environmental sustainability.

Outcome:

The online seminar received positive feedback from participants, who appreciated the informative presentation by Dr. Sheetal Pachpande and found the session engaging and insightful. The seminar successfully achieved its objective of raising awareness about wetland conservation and inspiring action among students and faculty members.
