Workshop Report: Empowering Women in the Digital Era - 2021-22

Date: 08/03/2022

Venue: Online

Organized by: Women's Development Cell (WDC)

Conducted by: Ms. Geeta Castelino

Link was given for the workshop.

Introduction:

On March 8th, 2022, the Women's Development Cell (WDC) organized an insightful online workshop titled "Empowering Women in the Digital Era." This workshop, conducted by the esteemed Ms. Geeta Castelino, aimed to equip women with the necessary skills and knowledge to thrive in the digital age. Through interactive sessions and discussions, participants explored various aspects of digital empowerment, including online safety, entrepreneurship, and career advancement.

Workshop Overview:

The workshop covered a wide range of topics relevant to women's empowerment in the digital landscape. Ms. Geeta Castelino, a seasoned expert in digital technology and women's rights advocacy, led engaging sessions designed to inform, inspire, and equip participants with practical tools for success. Some key areas addressed during the workshop include:

1. Digital Literacy: Participants learned about the importance of digital literacy in today's interconnected world, gaining insights into essential digital skills such as internet usage, social media navigation, and online communication.
2. Online Safety: Ms. Castelino provided valuable tips and strategies for staying safe and secure in the online environment, including protecting personal information, recognizing online threats, and practicing responsible digital citizenship.
3. Entrepreneurship Opportunities: The workshop explored the vast array of entrepreneurial opportunities available in the digital economy, empowering women to leverage technology to start and grow their own businesses.
4. Career Development: Discussions on career advancement in the digital era highlighted the potential for women to pursue fulfilling and lucrative careers in fields such as digital marketing, e-commerce, software development, and more.
5. Inspiration and Motivation: Throughout the workshop, Ms. Castelino shared inspiring success stories and practical advice to motivate participants to pursue their goals with confidence and determination.

Highlights and Participant Feedback:

The "Empowering Women in the Digital Era" workshop received overwhelmingly positive feedback from participants. Some of the key highlights and comments include:

- Participants appreciated the relevance and timeliness of the workshop, especially in light of the increasing importance of digital skills in today's job market.
- The interactive nature of the sessions, including Q&A segments and group discussions, fostered a sense of community and collaboration among participants.
