Report on Expert Lecture on Direct & Indirect Tax for TYBCOM SEM 5

Date: September 30, 2022

Time: 10:00 AM

Venue: Room No. 22

Introduction:

An expert lecture on Direct & Indirect Tax was organized for the students of TYBCOM SEM 5 on September 30, 2022. The lecture aimed to enhance the understanding of taxation concepts among the students and provide them with insights into both direct and indirect taxation systems.

Participants:

Faculties: 8

Students: 61

Resource Person:

The session was conducted by Prof. Kiran Temkar, a seasoned expert in the field of taxation with extensive experience in academia and practical application.

Outcome:

Enhanced Understanding: Prof. Kiran Temkar's comprehensive explanation and real-world examples helped students develop a deeper understanding of both direct and indirect tax concepts.

Clarity on Taxation Laws: The lecture clarified various provisions and laws related to direct and indirect taxes, including Income Tax, Goods and Services Tax (GST), and their implications on businesses and individuals.

Practical Insights: Prof. Temkar shared practical insights into tax planning strategies and compliance requirements, enabling students to appreciate the importance of tax management in financial decision-making.

Interactive Session: The lecture encouraged active participation from students through discussions, case studies, and Q&A sessions, fostering a collaborative learning environment.

Government of Maharashtra's
Ismail Yusuf College of Arts, Science & Commerce,
Jogeshwari (East), Mumbai - 400 060.

Skill Development: Students gained practical skills in tax computation, analysis of tax implications, and interpretation of tax laws, which are essential for their future careers in finance, accounting, and taxation.

Overall, the session received positive feedback from both students and faculties, highlighting its effectiveness in supplementing the academic curriculum and enriching the learning experience. Further such expert lectures are encouraged to ensure continuous learning and skill development among the students.
