Sub: Pulwama attack

Date: 14th Feb 2022

Venue: I.Y. College, NCC Unit

Total No. of Cadets: 45 Boys & 47 Girls

The NCC could undertake regarding the Pulwama attack. Arrange memorial services to honor the brave souls who lost their lives in the Pulwama attack. This could include candlelight vigils, moments of silence to pay respects. It's crucial for the NCC to approach these activities with sensitivity, empathy to promoting peace, unity and resilience among its members.

Outcome-Through participation in memorial services, NCC members develop a deeper sense of empathy and understanding towards the victims and their families. They reflect on the human cost of terrorism and recognize the importance of standing in solidarity with those affected by such tragic events.

Impact-By organizing memorial services, the NCC raises awareness about the impact of terrorism and the need for peace and harmony within society. It provides an opportunity to educate members and the community about the consequences of violence and the importance of promoting a culture of peace.

Sensitization-By sensitizing students to various social issues surrounding the Pulwama attack, educators and community leaders can empower them to become informed, compassionate, and socially responsible citizens who are capable of contributing positively to society. Emphasize the importance of promoting peace, unity, and resilience in the face of tragedy. Encourage students to reject violence and extremism and to work towards building inclusive and harmonious communities.
