Report on Organised Mumbai Chi Hodi Festival at Government of Maharashtra Ismail Yusuf College

Date: 2nd & 3rd July

Venue: Government of Maharashtra Ismail Yusuf College, Mumbai

Introduction:

The Mumbai Chi Hodi Festival held at Government of Maharashtra Ismail Yusuf College on 2nd and 3rd July was a vibrant celebration of Maharashtra's rich cultural heritage. Organized by the Government of Maharashtra, the festival aimed to showcase the diverse traditions, art forms, cuisine, and talents of the state.

Event Highlights:

Cultural Performances: The festival featured a plethora of cultural performances including folk dances, music concerts, and theatrical performances. Artists from various regions of Maharashtra presented traditional dances like Lavani, Powada, Tamasha, and Bharud, captivating the audience with their mesmerizing performances.

Art and Craft Exhibition: A dedicated section was allocated for an art and craft exhibition where local artisans displayed their exquisite craftsmanship. Visitors had the opportunity to admire and purchase a wide array of handicrafts, handloom products, pottery, and traditional artworks.

Cuisine Delights: The festival offered a gastronomic delight with stalls serving authentic Maharashtrian cuisine. From delectable street food like Vada Pav and Misal Pav to traditional delicacies like Puran Poli and Modak, the food stalls catered to the diverse palate of the attendees.

Workshops and Demonstrations: Several workshops and demonstrations were conducted to promote traditional arts and crafts. Visitors could participate in sessions on Warli painting, Madhubani art, pottery making, and more, providing them with hands-on experience and insights into the state's rich artistic heritage.

Cultural Talks and Discussions: Eminent personalities and scholars conducted talks and discussions on various aspects of Maharashtra's culture, history, and traditions. Topics ranged from the evolution of Marathi literature to the significance of folk art forms in contemporary society, fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation among the attendees.

Conclusion:

The Organised Mumbai Chi Hodi Festival at Government of Maharashtra Ismail Yusuf College was a resounding success, attracting a diverse audience eager to immerse themselves in the cultural tapestry of Maharashtra. Through its vibrant performances, exhibitions, workshops, and discussions, the festival not only celebrated the state's rich heritage but also served as a platform for promoting and preserving its cultural legacy. The event exemplified the Government of Maharashtra's commitment to nurturing and showcasing the cultural diversity that defines the spirit of the state. Programmes conducted for the Academic Year 2022-23

ECO-FRIENDLY GANESH UTSAV

Date: 29 & 30 August 2022

Venue: College Campus

Eco friendly modaks made of soil were made which had a seed enclosed in it.

Each modak had any one of the following type of seed:

Pumpkin, beans, okra, spiny Gourd.

Around 7280 eco friendly modaks were made using the modak DIYs

The modak moulding was done under the guidance of the extension teachers.

The modaks were left to be dried for one complete night.

The next day modak distribution was to be held before a vessel made of leaf was prepared in which eco-friendly modak was to be given. Beginning with the madam principal of our college, Dr. Swati D Wavhal, eco friendly Modak was given. She believed this as an innovative step and accepted it with elegance. Next week continued with the teachers of various departments along with their heads. Each one of the arts science and commerce sections accepted with grace.

TREE PLANTATION PROGRAM

Date: 08 December 2022

Venue: College Campus

A free tree plantation drive was held in order to understand and learn soil conservation. We went to Ashok Kamble garden which is situated at Andheri East to understand and learn about soil conservation under save soil scheme with 14 student member volunteers and the extension teacher Dr. Archana Rangari. We reached sharp at 2:00 p.m. and were welcomed by subhajit Mukherjee. There were already few members of the NSS where along with them sir guided us about the garden and also about the preparation of compost needed for the tree plantation.
