Report on the Screening of the Documentary "Samvidhan" and Display of Replica of Original Constitution

Introduction: The History and Political Science Department of Ismail Yusuf College organized a special participative learning activity featuring the screening of the documentary "Samvidhan" by Shyam Benegal and the display of a replica of the original Constitution of India on 25th January 2019 in college auditorium.

Objectives:

1. To understand the process of making the Constitution.
2. To understand rights and duties.
3. To strengthen the feeling of nationalism and respect for the Constitution.

Program Overview: The event commenced with an introductory session highlighting the significance of the Indian Constitution and the historical context of its creation. Following this, students watched the documentary "Samvidhan," which vividly portrays the journey of the Indian National Movement and the diligent efforts involved in drafting the Constitution. The screening provided a comprehensive view of the debates, discussions, and challenges faced by the Constituent Assembly.

Display of the Replica of the Original Constitution: A highlight of the event was the display of a meticulously crafted replica of the original Constitution. Students were thrilled to witness this replica, which provided them with a tangible connection to this foundational document of Indian democracy.

Outcomes:

1. Understanding the Journey of the Indian Constitution:
2. Inspiration from the Efforts of the Assembly and Parliament:
3. Insight into the Workings of the Constitution:

Conclusion: The screening of "Samvidhan" and the display of the replica of the original Constitution were highly successful in achieving the set objectives. Above 60 students attended the program. The event not only enriched the students' knowledge of the Indian National Movement and the making of the Constitution but also instilled a deeper sense of respect and pride for this monumental document. The participative learning activity proved to be an inspiring and educational experience for all attendees.
